

AMONG THE EDITORS.

There are more colored newspapers printed in Texas than any State in the Union. Arkansas and Mississippi are close seconds.

They are having trouble with the natives and liquor in South Africa. The South Africa Spectator (of Cape-town, says:

"The liquor traffic comes next in order in the catalogue. Now, different views are held by different people in this question. There are those who regard the strict prohibition of the sale of liquor to the colored people as being class legislation. Unfortunately class legislation in some form or another obtains everywhere, and in the New Colonies at any rate the colored man comes in for his full share of it."

The September number of the Colored American Magazine bristles with interesting reading matter, in fact, the Magazine under its new management, is making such literary strides as will soon entitle it to rank among the national productions of its kind.

The September number contains some very excellent articles. Among them are: Hon. Thomas W. Blackwell's address at the dedication of memorial monument to Negro slaves. "The Unmentionable Crime," James S. Stemons. "The Hidden Self," Pauline E. Hopkins. "Why the Negro Was Enfranchised," Hon. Richard P. Hollo-well.

Kate Douglass Wiggins' new book, "Half-a-Dozen Housekeepers; a Story for Girls in Half-a-Dozen Chapters," will be brought out early in the fall by Henry Altemus Company.

Six school girls "descend" upon a Maine village at the invitation of one of their number, who has borrowed the family home for two weeks from an indulgent father then touring the South with the remainder of the family; and what those captivating damsels found to do in that memorable fortnight is told with a fascination that is remorseless.

The Baptist Vanguard published at Little Rock, Ark., printed in a recent issue a full-page likeness of that giant of the Baptist pulpit, Rev. E. C. Morris, president of the National Baptist Convention.

The Atlanta Independent a new candidate for journalistic success, starts out by attacking that veteran leader and journalist, Col. W. A. Pledge. A bad start, young fellow.

Rev. J. Harvey Anderson, a prominent Zion minister and a writer of great force and cleverness, pays a deserving tribute to a deserving man in The Star of Zion, September 10, 1903.

A sample copy of the Gazetteer and Guide Magazine, published at Buffalo, N. Y., by that enterprising hustler, Mr. James A. Ross, has reached us. It is neat, up to date, and newsy.

The "Seventh Wonder of the World," a valuable book on race heredity and history, is meeting with a large sale. It is published by Mr. B. N. Boyd. Greenville, N. C. Agents wanted.

"The Negro Problem," is the title of a new publication containing contributions from some of the best-known colored educators in the country; has just been issued by James Pott & Co., publishers, importers and book sellers, 119-121 West Twenty-third street, New York. A review of the same will appear in these columns later on.

Mr. Joseph T. Newman the up-to-date hair cutter is doing a fine business at 400 Third street southwest. His motto is, treat everybody right and give them their money's worth.

Miss Bessie Spotwood of Harrisburg, Pa., has been the guest for a week of her cousins, the Flemings, of Twelfth street northeast. Miss Mary Fleming and her sister, Mrs. Nettie Brooks, have had Miss Spotwood continually on the go during her stay. Miss Bessie will spend a week with friends in Philadelphia.

The Eureka Lunch Room and Cafe located at 729 Fourth street northwest, is one of the neatest and most up-to-date places of its kind in that section of the city. In addition to the regular meals, ice cream and soda are a specialty between hours. Go and see it for yourself.

Madam McNairdee=Moore

The gifted clairvoyant, the great female wonder, born with the double- (caul) veil, she is of the old ancient Southern clairvoyants of New Orleans. She's a living Phrenologist and Physiognomist. She tells plainly what you are best adapted for in life by reading your brain and mind. With a grasp of her hand she gives you a coil of influence to enable you to overcome all bad luck. She has made thousands of homes happy. Read the fifth chapter, ix verse of St. Matt.; "Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God." She reunites the separated, makes peace where there is confusion. Your husband or wife will never become angry or your sweetheart forsake you, but will love you better and marry you sooner if you will heed this lady's consultation. Read what several ladies of your city say, "Yes, we believe her a Godsend to our city; my husband and I had been separated over a year and just think since I called on this lady, he returned to-day; we are together and happy." This young lady says: "The one loved refused to call or write me; I called on this lady and we are now engaged." You can't afford to miss consulting this gifted lady; she is gifted to read characters. She challenges the world to excel her advice on love, losses, business, family and financial troubles. Reunites the separated, causes speedy marriage with the one of your choice. No cards allowed in her place of business; no one's ill wishes filled; strictly a Christian lady and depends entirely on her heavenly gift. If you are painful or ailing, think you have been witchcraft, go to see her. She spent eight years in the jungles of Africa and has traveled through 34 States doing good wherever she went. Read St. John, 9th chap., 33d verse: "If this man is not God he could do nothing."

Three parlors so arranged that you meet no friends nor strangers; everything confidential. Owing to such crowds you may call day or night. Permanently located. Send money by postal order or registered letter.

I, for one, as one in the midst. My heart ached from the cruel treatment of my husband and the way he would throw away his time and money, until I consulted this wonderful lady. It will soon be wear. Through her he has become a loving husband; and to-day he presents me with a lovely lot on which he will in the spring erect a home. Tongue can't praise her too highly.

A LADY, of New Iberia, La.

Write her at once for all information.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 17, 1902.

Madame McNairdee, Indianapolis, Ind. Dear Madame:—Your letter like a ray of sunshine, came duly to hand and I am very pleased with it, for every word of it were true; I am sorry that I did not write to you months ago. I enclose $6.00 for your service hoping that you may be successful in bringing about desired results. I feel quite sure that you can. I am very sorry to hear of your being ill, and sincerely hope your speedy recovery.

Molino, Fla., Nov. 14, 1902.

Madame:—You are the proper person in the proper place. All that you say is true, and all that you do is good. May God bless you. F. J.

There is no doubt of this lady's prophetic power. She is a living phrenologist, palmist and a natural born clairvoyant to which thousands will testify. She is a God send to our country—born with a gift that no one can dictate. Tell you every incident of your past and present life and put you on the road to success both financially and physically if you will only heed her instruction. I called on her when the one I love had gone, I knew not where, and he returned at once, and to-day I am his dear wife.

A LADY of Fort Gibson, Ind. T.

Madam—I feel it my duty to do this for you are all you advertise. Just think, my husband and I had been separated two years; I called on you in September and in a week's time he returned and married me, and I can't praise you too much. Ladies that are broken-hearted by family troubles, love affairs and bad luck, until it seems that life is a blank, call or write to this dear lady; she will do you good; she will tell you to trust God and she will do the balance, and she will.

A LADY of Roseland, B. C.

Dear Sisters and Brothers—Call on her when you can, she will be pleased to meet you when ever you wish to. She devotes her entire time for the welfare of the people, believing God will reward her. She will make your very soul glad to hear her talk of Heaven, for she writes such searching letters, tells you how to make home happy. Please always enclose stamp for answer. Here she is as she looks to-day and a bride three weeks.
